 Free event is open to the public with a State Park sticker.

Arrive to meet purple martin landlords and enthusiasts. Be inspired with the sights and sounds of a large colony of purple martins established in 1994. MartinFest will be centered around you, purple martins, Master Bird Bander Dick Nikolai and Wildlife of Wisconsin Chairman Jerry Theys. Various vendors will be onsite throughout the day, a popular Festival silent auction and much discussion with colony landlords. Bring your whole family, friends and neighbors!
